

Student Honor Code

One of the College's most important goals is to facilitate the growth and development of Christian character in line with biblical principles. It is expected that College students live in such a manner that brings glory to Christ in their behavior and attitudes both in and outside of College settings. Therefore, each student is expected to abide by the following:

1. Spirit

I will develop my spiritual relationship with God by taking on the attitude of Christ and submitting myself to those in spiritual leadership over me. I hold myself responsible for my growth and choose to be a learner and seeker of God even when it is not asked of me. I will strive to position myself for discipleship and mentoring. I commit to personal devotion to God no matter how rigorous my schedule may be.

2. Body

Recognizing that my body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, I commit to honor God in the way I treat my body. I will work to discipline my body and maintain a healthy lifestyle by fulfilling the exercise requirements and nutrition assignments.

3. Character

I purpose to develop character, integrity and godliness in seeking to become the leader that God has called me to be. I will constantly strive for truth and honor in my personal life so that I may lead others to do the same. I will abstain from biblically immoral practices including: drunkenness, illegal drugs, tobacco, stealing, slanderous or profane language, dishonesty, occult practices and sexual sins (premarital sex, adultery, and homosexuality) or any other behavior that is considered detrimental to Christian character and witness.

4. Attitude

I will attend all required events and activities with an optimistic and energetic attitude. As a leader I recognize that I am responsible to demonstrate qualities that challenge others to be excited about God. I will avoid attitudes (such as greed, jealousy, pride, bitterness, needless anger, and discrimination) and behavior (such as gossip, divisiveness, and complaining) that disrupts the unity and health of the College body.

5. Relationships

I will develop solid relationships with others seeking to be sharpened and challenged in my walk with God. I will seek to be the first to love and forgive others, as I would want to be loved and forgiven, and I will do my best to not take offense.

6. Accountability

I will take responsibility for my actions and will make myself accountable to my peers as well as authority. I recognize that accountability starts by subjecting myself to others, not waiting for them to hold me accountable. I will follow CLC rules and recommendations to live an accountable lifestyle.

7. Authority

I will show respect for staff and faculty and cooperate with the aims and endeavors of the College and Church. I will submit even when I disagree and will bring any concerns to my authority in a mature, loving way without gossip or a bad attitude.

8. Academics

I will attend all prescribed lectures, ministry tracks, services, and activities required by the College program unless formally excused. I will submit all assignment work by the due dates specified on course syllabi. I will refrain from dishonest academic practices as outlined by the Academic Misconduct policy (see Section 5).

9. Finances

I commit to being a faithful steward with my finances. I will plan ahead to make all financial deadlines to continue the College program. I will strive to honor God and put Him first in this area of my life. I also take full responsibility to raise sufficient funds for our mission trip without excuse.
